Washington, D. C. N 1

Dear Mr. Gray:

On October 13, 1972, I called at the Federal Bureau of Investigation office, 535 W. Jefferson, Springfield, Ill., and talked with a man represented to be James Colby.

My purpose in calling was to obtain the name of the agent, a fat, pot-bellied man, who did not clearly present his identification when calling on me at 220 S. 11th St., Mt. Vernon Ill., at 12:15 P. M. May 24, 1962. He was accompanied by [redacted] whose shouted that it was not true. However, I know what happened.

Colby was extremely rude and hateful and shouted that I had been removed from every college campus in the United States. This would include a great many and is an obvious lie. The record will show that I was required to leave the University of Illinois in February 1942 because of a minor homosexual incident and because a stupid, crackpot psychologist could not turn me into a heterosexual therapeutic treatment. Also I told Colby, there are plenty of homosexuals at the University of Illinois and Southern Illinois University, both on the faculty and among the students. There are also heterosexual students. There are men and women — who live and sleep together though unmarried. Yet I have been denied all opportunity and wise and school-qualified job. In June 1963 I was denied the right to take even a night course at the Junior College in Chicago because of a letter from [redacted] University of Illinois. [redacted] is one of Hoover's [redacted] agents.

The unnecessary visit by [redacted] and the pot. bellie of Agent (Colby would not give me his name) arose out of an unnecessary visit by [redacted]

[redacted] Southern Illinois University, on May 16, 1962 in response to my letter to the Director of Admissions, SIU, dated May 12, 1962, to which I received no reply.

I ask that you remove James Colby, [redacted] and the pot. bellie of director and send me a copy of the letters of removal. Do not transfer them to the cold of Point Barrow, Alaska or the heat of Biloxi, Mississippi. I ask that they be barred from all jobs and positions in the Federal and State governments.

Do not send any of your agents to call on me personally, as I will not receive them, nor answer any of their questions. In the future I will talk to a government agent only in the presence of my Congressman, U. S. Senator, or State Representative or Senator at a time and place.

convenient to all. There will be no more loud knocks on doors, shouting, scowls, psychologizing tricks, cornering in porch swings, evasive replies, scare techniques, etc. The stunt-pulling days of government agents and security officers are over.
